September Prayer Letter

Laura and I walked into our house in San Augustine at 9:30 on the first night of September, seventeen and a half hours after leaving Dubai. We had just finished eleven days in Takoradi, Ghana, for the West Africa Pastors and Workers Conference, where I preached five times. We barely got the suitcases open before we were back on the road. By God's grace we worked churches in California, New Jersey, New Hampshire, New York, and Tennessee this month.

The moment I will remember came on a Sunday morning at Lighthouse Bible Baptist Church in Webster, New York, where Jack Young is pastor. At the invitation, a young lady raised her hand to be saved. After the service Laura sat down with her, opened the Bible, and showed her how she could know she was going to heaven. She asked Jesus into her heart. We have driven a lot of miles this year, and that one raised hand was worth every one of them.

Your churches are making the road shorter. Several more churches voted to take us on for monthly support this month, and each one brings us a step closer to Ghana. We are humbled to serve as your representatives, and we could not do this without your prayers and support.

Please pray for:

1. The remaining support to come in so we can return to Ghana in January 2027.
2. Safety on the road as October takes us through Texas, Ohio, and Kentucky.
3. Gilbert, Danny, and Bonnie as they settle into a new season at Providence Baptist College.
4. Opportunities to present our ministry.

Your friends and ambassadors to West Africa,
Joe and Laura Consford
